Notice on Planned Schedule for Disclosure of Report by Independent Investigation Committee and Other Events

Toshiba Corporation (the “Company”) has received a detailed schedule (subject to change) from the Independent Investigation Committee regarding the submission of its investigation report, and the Company hereby provides notice of that schedule and related events.

The Company expresses sincere apologies to its shareholders, investors and all other stakeholders for any concern or inconvenience caused by the investigation into the Company’s accounting practices. The entire Company will make concerted efforts to regain trust, and appreciates your continued support.

The Independent Investigation Committee has informed the Company that it plans to submit the investigation report (consisting of the full report and a summary version) at around 7:00 p.m. on July 20.

The Company anticipates that it will require a certain amount of time before it can make the report public, as it will need to consider and, if necessary, implement partial redaction of the content from perspectives such as ensuring protection of trade secrets owned by the Company and its business partners, and protecting individual privacy.

The Company therefore plans to make public the summary version at around 9:00 p.m. on July 20, as promptly as possible after it is received, and disclose the full report at 3:00 p.m. on July 21. The Company also plans to hold a press conference at 5:00 p.m. on July 21.
