Notice on Completion of Transfer of Business of Toshiba General Hospital

TOKYO—Toshiba Corporation (TOKYO: 6502) announced on November 30, 2017, in “Notice on Transfer of Business of Toshiba General Hospital,” that it had entered into a business transfer agreement for the transfer of the business operated by Toshiba General Hospital to Midorino-kai, a medical corporation that belongs to the Kamachi group (CEO: Masumi Kamachi, M.D.). The notice also stated that the closing of the transfer was scheduled for March 30, 2018, subject to acquisition of approvals required under the Medical Care Act. The company hereby gives notice that the transfer was completed on April 1, 2018.

The transfer price is approximately 27.5 billion yen, and income before taxes is expected to be approximately 25.3 billion yen. This will be reflected in the FY2018 full year consolidated business results forecast.
