1 Reasons for filing an amendment to the Tender Offer Registration Statement

With regard to the matters contained in the Tender Offer Registration Statement filed as of November 14, 2019, pursuant to the proviso of Article 27(2) of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (Act No. 228 of 1949, including all subsequent amendments; hereinafter, the "Foreign Exchange Act"), the waiting period as provided in the main body of Article 27(2) of the Foreign Exchange Act was shortened, and the Tender Offeror is now permitted to acquire the common shares of the Target Company. Accordingly, the Tender Offeror is filing this Amendment to the Tender Offer Registration Statement pursuant to the provisions of Article 27-8(2) of the Law in order to amend the language under "(2) Laws and regulations that form the grounds for the decision" and "(3) Date and number of permission, etc." of "6 Authorizations Regarding Acquisition of Share Certificates" of "Article 1 Tender Offer Guidelines" as well as to attach the "Notice concerning the acquisition of shares (and voting rights) and other matters" setting forth the date on which the transaction became permissible.

(2) Laws and regulations that form the grounds for the decision

(Before the Amendment)
As of November 13, 2019, the Tender Offeror filed a notice to the Minister of Finance and the competent ministers via the Bank of Japan, in accordance with Article 27(1) of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (Act No. 228 of 1949, as amended; hereinafter the “Foreign Exchange Act”), and it was accepted on the same day. A waiting period of 30 days is required after acceptance of the notice before the Tender Offeror becomes able to acquire common shares of the Target Company. Such waiting period may be shortened. In addition, if the relevant inward direct investment is deemed to constitute an inward direct investment that may affect the national security, the Minister of Finance or the competent minister may recommend changing the particulars of or abandoning such inward direct investment, and the waiting period may be extended to 5 months as an examination period for this purpose.

If the waiting period described above is extended or if a recommendation is made to change the particulars of or abandon the inward direct investment, etc., the Tender Offeror may withdraw the Tender Offer, on the that a situation occurred as prescribed in Article 14(1)(iv) of the Ordinance as stated in “(2) Existence of Conditions of Withdrawals of the Tender Offer, the Particulars Thereof, and Method for Disclosing Withdrawals” of “11 Other Terms and Conditions and Methods of Purchasing” below.

(After the Amendment)
As of November 13, 2019, the Tender Offeror filed a notice to the Minister of Finance and the competent ministers via the Bank of Japan, in accordance with Article 27(1) of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (Act No. 228 of 1949, as amended; hereinafter the “Foreign Exchange Act”), and it was accepted on the same day.
